The Departmental/ Sectional heads of concerned departments responsible for performing evening Aarati as per given schedule are requested to ensure maximum participation of employees along with families of their department in the evening Aarati.

However, it does not mean that only employees and their families of the Department responsible for performing evening Aarati shall visit the temple as per given schedule. The employees and their families of other departments are also welcomed to visit the temple for evening Aarati on every day.

We hope with the cooperation of all employees and their families, there will be significant increase in number of devotees visiting the temple for seeking divine blessings.
